INDIANAPOLIS – The Circle City welcomes Nashville-native R&B/pop singer Josh Smith to the Indianapolis Motor Speedway on Wednesday, May 25th from 2pm - 4pm. Sponsored by WHOOZNXT, an online entertainment media website that rewards emerging artists for growing their fanbase with live gigs and high profile publicity, Smith will be part of a day-long lineup of talented artists featured at the 500 Festival Community Day event.

The American Family Insurance 500 Festival Community Day is the only day race fans can get an up-close tour of the legendary Brickyard. In addition to visiting Pit Lane, Victory Circle and the vintage car display, fans will also enjoy live music, driver autograph sessions and much more.

Writing songs since the age of 12, Smith began performing in coffee shops and with high school bands around his hometown of Nashville. In spring 2006, Smith moved to Los Angeles to pursue a full-time career as an artist, musician and actor. Within a short time, Smith teamed up with guitarist, Stevie Riolo, and Derek Defields to form the band Stereofox.

Described as a mix of pop, folk and R&B, Stereofox has appeared at L.A. venues such as The Hotel Café, The Mint and The M Bar. Smith has also performed solo around the L.A. area in clubs such as The Green Door, The Viper Room, Hard Rock Café and the Whiskey A Go Go.

The Wednesday festival appearance at 2pm - 4pm will be an all ages show. Smith will be performing hits from the current Stereofox album, Ice The Symphony, as well as new songs from his upcoming album.
